The location

Newton Lodge is well positioned on the western edge of St Mawes for endless footpaths, National Trust-owned land, St Mawes Castle at the bottom of the hill and a location which is within walking distance of the harbour and beaches, yet elevated up and away from the summer crowds. The design of the property ensures that the entire focus is towards the open panoramic views over the village and towards the water.

Situated on the tip of the Roseland peninsula, the timelessly picturesque harbour village of St. Mawes on the eastern side of the Fal Estuary has long been one of England's most desirable and exclusive waterside destinations. For generation after generation, St Mawes has been a magnet for sailing and watersports enthusiasts with discerning people of all ages seeking an idyllic waterside getaway, main home and a healthy lifestyle based around fresh air, good food and free time on the water.

The village is centred around its small stone harbour and has its own beaches, sailing club, castle (dating back to Henry VIII) and a selection of good pubs, boutique shops, galleries, renowned deli, superb restaurants, along with hotels of the very highest quality, The Tresanton, Idle Rocks and St Mawes Hotel.

The Roseland itself is one of Cornwall's most unspoilt areas with an inspiring combination of harbour villages and rolling rural countryside. Nearby St Just in Roseland, famous for its ancient church, Portscatho, Portloe and Veryan combine beautifully with some of the county's finest beaches to create a sensational place to live.

The garden and grounds

- Panoramic views from the large decked terrace with glazed balustrade providing extensive space for al fresco dining
- Part covered and enclosed main patio enjoying complete privacy
- Discrete courtyard to the front providing a sheltered spot from where to take in the view
- Side courtyard providing a useful utility area, log store and space for a greenhouse
- Enclosed area of lawn interspersed with shrubs and trees, bordered by a Cornish hedge
- Gated entrance courtyard with steps leading to the front entrance

Shore recommendations

- Discover the charms and variety of the three art galleries in St Mawes including Waterside which has been in the village for over 30 years.
- Take the foot ferry to St Anthony and walk the coastpath to the lighthouse before rounding the headland to Porthbeor beach.
- St Just Church, built in 1261, was described by John Betjeman as 'to many people the most beautiful churchyard on earth' The gardens surrounding the church have delighted people for hundreds of years.
- The Hidden Hut is found tucked away along the coast path near Portscatho overlooking Porthcurnick beach - a special spot to enjoy freshly cooked food out in the sea air.
- Knightor Winery's Portscatho vineyard and barn is a tranquil setting located within 26 acres of vineyard. Full of rustic charm, this has proven itself as a great venue for functions, parties, wine tours and feasts.

Directions

Travel south on the A3078 towards St Mawes and take the right hand turn following the sign to the castle. Continue along Upper Castle Road, past the left hand turn to Newton Road, and slow down almost immediately as you see the houses on your left. Turn tight left into Hancock Lane and the property is the first house on the left hand side.
