Boasting a southwest-facing aspect, beautifully landscaped terraced gardens and a charming waterside one-bedroom boathouse, The Owls House is true masterpiece of quality and elegance within in a prime coastal setting.

Location

Nestled within this wooded setting at the head of Pill Creek, The Owls House is perfectly situated for the outdoor-based lifestyle this idyllic location provides.

Many walks abound in the area, including around Trelissick, where there is a beautiful woodland walk along the banks of the River Fal, to Loe Beach where there are sailing facilities and popular café, and to Restrounguet Point, Harcourt, Trolver Croft and Goonpiper.

In addition to the sailing, dinghy launching and kayaking facilities at Loe Beach, there are numerous sailing clubs around the shoreline of the Carrick Roads, notably at Mylor Harbour, which over recent years has become the county's pre-eminent boating centre. Golf courses are nearby at Truro and Falmouth. There are highly regarded primary schools within a short drive at Devoran and Kea.

The thriving university town of Falmouth is approximately ten miles distant, offering a fine range of restaurants, quayside bars, galleries, sub-tropical gardens and safe sandy bathing beaches. The South West Coast Path then continues to the neighbouring coves at Swanpool, Maenporth and beyond onto the beautiful Helford River.

The Roseland Peninsula is only a short drive away via the iconic King Harry Ferry where St Mawes, Portscatho, Vryan, Carne and Pendower all provide superb dining, art, beach, sailing and walking opportunities.
