7 Dunstanville Terrace, Falmouth, TR11 2SW

Occupying a pole position within Falmouth's most iconic Victorian terrace, this beautifully renovated and extended two storey maisonette enjoys panoramic views stretching from Pendennis Castle, across the harbour and over to Flushing. The three double bedrooms span the entire top floor, complemented by two reception rooms and a versatile sitting room / study. Natural light and wonderful views define the interior, while a large private garden provides a rare retreat in this coveted setting, whilst a cellar and large loft space offer excellent storage. Moments from the waterfront and town centre, this is a home of exceptional vantage.

The location

Perfectly positioned on the prestigious and historic Dunstanville Terrace, this fantastic apartment enjoys one of Falmouth's most coveted waterfront settings. Overlooking the active waters of the harbour and the picturesque village of Flushing, the location offers uninterrupted views stretching across the harbour and towards the Carrick Roads and the Roseland Peninsula. Just a short stroll from the renowned Greenbank Hotel and Falmouth's vibrant town centre, residents benefit from easy access to boutique shops, acclaimed restaurants, galleries and excellent sailing facilities.

Sailing and water sports facilities are exceptional and easily accessible with the Royal Cornwall Yacht Club and Falmouth Marina just moments away. Moorings are available within the river and harbour, with the sheltered waters of the harbour leading out to the Carrick Roads, tree-lined creeks of the River Fal and Falmouth Bay, all combining to create arguably the best day-sailing waters in Cornwall and indeed the country.
